

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, February 20. 1703.

London, Feb. 19. This Day arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last, which brings the following Advices.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Feb. 27.

Madrid, February 8.

THE King has demanded out of 15 Millions of Pieces of Eight that were sav'd at Vigo, 7 Millions and a half for the Indulto; Whereupon the Council of Commerce at Seville has sent a Petition with a Remonstrance to his Majesty, desiring him to moderate that Demand.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 27.

Lendau, Feb. 19. On Saturday night last came hither 1200 Horse of the Palatine Troops, which with the Palatine Regiment of Foot of Nassau Weylbürg, that lay here, are gone towards Raftad; whither 2 Regiments, one of Hanover, the other of Hesse Darmstadt, are likewise marching.

Heilbron, Feb. 19. The French Army, under the Marshal de Villars, which pass'd the Rhine at Hunninghen and Newburg, being, as 'tis reported, to be joyn'd by 12 or 15000 Men out of Lorraine, Prince Lewis of Baden is gone from Raftad to Offenbürg, to draw together what Forces he can to defend the Kintziger Dale; and all the Hussars that were canton'd in the Bishoprick of Syrieres and the neighbouring places, put themselves in March on the 17th towards the Lines at Laufenbürg.

Frankfort, Feb. 20. The Passage of the French over the Rhine, has occasion'd a great Alarm in this Country; the Regiments of Imperial Cuirassiers that were quarter'd in the Wetterau, march'd to day through this City towards the Upper Alsatia. Six Regiments are march'd from Raftad towards Hague-nau, and 6 other Imperial Regiments are moving from Raftad towards Norlinghen. The French that were drawn together on the Saar, are march'd towards Strasbürg.

Frankfort, Feb. 21. Count Leymingen General of the Palatine Troops, is gone with some Regiments of Horse towards Lauterbürg; and some Troops of Hussars are march'd towards Anweiltler. 'Tis talk'd that the Troops which lye before Traerbach, except a certain number that are to be left to block up the Castle, will move into Lorraine to make a Diversion; and some say the Diet of the Empire at Ratisbon will remove to some other City.

Cologne, Feb. 13. This day 7 Regiments of Dutch, commanded by Major General Goor, march'd from hence towards the Moselle; and tomorrow the Generals Overkirk and Dopf will follow them with 2000 Horse.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 24.

Letters from Rome of the 10th advise, That the Pope has conferr'd the Archbishoprick of Naples on Signior Pignatelli, Archbishop of Tarentum, and at present Nuncio in Poland.

On the 22d, The Chevalier de Vrilliere brought the News to the King, That the Marshal de Villars having pass'd his Army over the Bridges cross the Rhine at Hunninghen and Newburg, took his march directly between Brisac and Friburg, and on the 19th invest'd the Fort of Kell. The Imperialists, surpriz'd at his Diligence, abandon'd above 50 Forts and Redoubts which they had rais'd on the Banks of the Rhine and the Kintzig, in many of which there was Cannon planted. A great number of Prisoners was taken, together with Ammunition and Provisions and Artillery. The Marshal de Villars order'd 12 Battallions to be follow'd for 4 Hours, they were commanded by General Bibra, who seeing he could not avoid being attack'd if he continued to retire in a Body, secur'd the Colours, and permitted the Soldiers to disperse themselves in the Woods. Prince Lewis of Baden, who came with all diligence to the Kintzig on the 18th, to draw his Troops together to defend the Retrenchments which he had caus'd to be thrown up on the side of that River, not having time sufficient to execute his purpose, was oblig'd to quit his Retrenchments and retire. These Advantages have not cost us one Man.

Metz, Feb. 15. The Marshal de Tallard arriv'd in this City on the 10th at Night, and after he had given what Orders he thought necessary, he went from hence on the 13th to go to Thionville. On the 12th 2 Companies of Bombardiers pass'd through this place, going to Sar-louis with 2 Regiments of Horse, and other Troops that arrive here daily, and continue their March. The Marshal de Tallard is drawing an Army together in the Neighbourhood of Thionville, and this Morning went from hence a great Number of Boats laden with Artillery, Ammunition, Provisions, Cordage, Anchors, and other things necessary for making Bridges.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Feb. 23.

The Elector of Bavaria has demanded of the Bishop of Ausbürg, a free Passage for some Regiments through his Territories: And of the Circle of Swabia 2000 Horses to remount his Cavalry: And has possess'd himself of Oberndorf.

The Marshal de Montrevel arriv'd in Languedoc on the 12th; The Dragoons and other Troops that he is to command, are got thither likewise.

Hamburg, Feb. 23. Letters from Thorn say, The King of Poland is at Marienburg, where Mr. Robinson, the English Envoy, is arriv'd; All his Majesty's Forces in those Parts, are drawing together about Thorn, and 'tis thought the King will lead them into Lithuania to joyn the 4 Saxon Regiments and the Lithuanian Army at Grodno, and with them march against the Swedes.

Liege, Feb. 23. We have a Report here, That the Elector of Cologne will go from Namur to Paris, and from thence return to Brussels to Administer his Brother's Office of Governour General of the Spanish Netherlands.

Hague, Feb. 25. Lieutenant General Fagel is arriv'd here, and the Lieutenant Generals Noyelles, Coehorn, Sales, and other chief Officers, are expected here shortly. My Lord Cuts sent a Trumpeter to Brussels, with some Proposals relating to the 160 English Recruits that were taken in the Ludlow Man of War and carry'd to Dunkirk; which which Trumpeter is return'd, but what answer he brings is not yet known.
